

PAN

AMSTERDAM

HOTEI JAPANESE PRINTS

Moon, Hachijō-in no Takakura (Getsu, Hachijō-in no Takakura 月と八景院の歌)

From the series: Famous women and their poems on the beauties of nature (Meifu eika kachō fūgetsu 名妓歌集).

Published by Izumiya Ichibei in c.1805.

Signed: Utamaro hitsu.

Each print features a famous woman poet, in this case Hachijō-in no Takakura (八景院の歌, c. 1176 - c. 1248). She was a waka poet and Japanese noblewoman and designated as a member of the New Thirty-Six Immortals of Poetry (新三十六歌仙, Shinsanjūrokasen).

From the series: Famous women and their poems on the beauties of nature (Meifu eika kachō fūgetsu 月見草歌集).

Published by Izumiya Ichibei in c.1805.

Signed: Utamaro hitsu.

Each print features a famous woman poet, in this case Hachijō-in no Takakura (橘井のたかくら, c. 1176 - c. 1248). She was a waka poet and Japanese noblewoman and designated as a member of the New Thirty-Six Immortals of Poetry (新三十六歌仙, Shinsanjūrokkasen).