Una relazione privata #13

Fine art print on archival cotton paper 81x66cm,
edition of 5+ 2 AP

A small journey within the intimacy of a couple.

The images, taken in a summer Mediterranean house, narrate brief moments of intimacy through everyday objects.

Which become guardians and witnesses of a love story.

Without ever seeing the protagonists, one perceives the tenderness, serenity and sexual complicity that involves them.

A Proustian evocation of a world of delicate and nostalgic sensations, in a timeless perspective created by the superposition of memory on photographs.
