Peter Vos (1975, NL) draws inspiration for his art from his fascination with and dedication to nature and the animal world. A recurring theme in Vos's oeuvre is his portraits of animals, particularly birds. We find ourselves face to face with the animals; not in their natural environment, but in a warm, neutral void and in close-up. This allows us to focus all our attention on their individual charisma and character. A strong personality is conveyed through the eyes, the gaze, the posture, subtle use of colour and precise textures.
