A sculpture of a ‘Mandrill’ monkey

Chamotte-clay, glazed.
Sculpted by Vicke Lindstrand in 1947
Executed by Upsala-Ekeby AB in Uppsala, Sweden late 1940's
Marked on the side: V. Lindstrand
Height 31 cm, width 43 cm

A large size sculpture of a ‘Mandrill’ monkey, executed in glazed Chamotte-clay. This piece was sculpted by the Swedish artist Vicke Lindstrand in 1947 and was made at the well known ceramics factory Upsala-Ekeby AB in Uppsala, Sweden around that same period.

The depicted Mandrill is modelled with a powerful, compact stance and an expressive character. The dark textured body contrasts beautifully with the vividly coloured blue and red facial markings.
