

PAN

AMSTERDAM

GALLERIA BAROVIER & TOSO

Drinking Glass Sculpture

Fabrizio Plessi applies his signature turbolenza technique to the traditional drinking glass form, where variations in water's movement and inclination create distinct sculptural expressions. Subtle colour shifts enhance the spiralling distortions as the glass captures fluid dynamics in permanent form. The vessel's familiar silhouette dissolves into undulating waves, transforming the everyday object into pure aesthetic contemplation. These unique pieces exemplify Plessi's dialogue between ancient glassmaking tradition and contemporary sensibility.